

A note for Lily Quan

WHO WE ARE

We are a small operational support studio. Real estate is not new to us, we built the website, content, and AI systems behind Real Cavalry, a San Antonio brokerage, ran a two-year marketing partnership with a Texas real estate investment firm, and built the email and CRM systems behind a real estate closing company. That is the same work we would bring here: the content, the follow-up, and the systems that keep a pipeline warm between closings.

WHAT WE NOTICED ABOUT LILY QUAN

You are already doing real things well:

- A boutique firm since 2003, built on individual attention, with a clear specialism in luxury new construction and multifamily across north coastal San Diego.
- You already offer New Listing Alerts, so the instinct to stay in touch with buyers is there.

Where we see the fastest room to grow:

- There is no blog or market content on qhomescarlsbad.com, and the newest dated item on the site is from May 2024. Buyers researching Carlsbad, Encinitas, Del Mar and Cardiff find nothing of yours to read.
- Listing alerts only reach people who are ready to look at homes today. There is nothing for the much larger group still deciding where on the coast to buy, or whether new construction is right for them.

WHAT WE WOULD DO FIRST

Add a small set of pages on buying new construction and multifamily on the north coast, with your alerts signup underneath. That brings in the earlier-stage buyer your alerts currently cannot reach.

THE SIMPLEST NEXT STEP

A short call, no pitch deck required, just to see if this is a fit. You can also see exactly how we work, and the real estate systems we have already built, at balaynibruno.co/real-estate-agent-marketing.html.
