

A note for Richard and Diane Eisendrath

Prepared for Richard and Diane Eisendrath, Eisendrath Team, Oceanside · September 15, 2026

WHO WE ARE

We are a small operational support studio. Real estate is not new to us, we built the website, content, and AI systems behind Real Cavalry, a San Antonio brokerage, ran a two-year marketing partnership with a Texas real estate investment firm, and built the email and CRM systems behind a real estate closing company. That is the same work we would bring here: the content, the follow-up, and the systems that keep a pipeline warm between closings.

WHAT WE NOTICED ABOUT RICHARD AND DIANE EISENDRATH

You are already doing real things well:

- Family-owned since 1978, when Richard earned his broker's licence and put down roots in Oceanside. Almost fifty years in North San Diego County.
- Your listings are current and your testimonials carry real dates, which is more transparency than most agents offer.

Where we see the fastest room to grow:

- Those dated testimonials also show a pause: the newest is 5 March 2025, then January 2025, then November 2024. Eighteen months of closings with no new reviews collected.
- There is no email signup on the site, so buyers watching Oceanside and Vista for months have no way to hear from you until they call.

WHAT WE WOULD DO FIRST

Start collecting reviews again with a simple follow-up after every closing that runs on its own. Then add a short North County market note with a signup, so almost fifty years of local knowledge keeps people close between moves.

THE SIMPLEST NEXT STEP

A short call, no pitch deck required, just to see if this is a fit. You can also see exactly how we work, and the real estate systems we have already built, at balaynibruno.co/real-estate-agent-marketing.html.
