

A note for The Boutique Real Estate

Prepared for Noa Levy, The Boutique Real Estate, Austin · September 16, 2026

WHO WE ARE

We are a small operational support studio. Real estate is not new to us, we built the website, content, and AI systems behind Real Cavalry, a San Antonio brokerage, ran a two-year marketing partnership with a Texas real estate investment firm, and built the email and CRM systems behind a real estate closing company. That is the same work we would bring here: the content, the follow-up, and the systems that keep a pipeline warm between closings.

WHAT WE NOTICED ABOUT THE BOUTIQUE REAL ESTATE

You are already doing real things well:

- A boutique team representing sellers, purchasers and renters in downtown Austin and throughout central Austin, with property management alongside sales.
- Recognition worth talking about: the blog carries ABoR Broker of the Year 2021.

Where we see the fastest room to grow:

- That post is the only one on The Boutique Blog, published March 28, 2022. Nothing has been written since, even though the site links to Local Market Trends and Real Estate News pages.
- There is no email signup, so the downtown buyers and renters who find you have no way to hear from the team between searches.

WHAT WE WOULD DO FIRST

Turn The Boutique Blog into a short monthly downtown Austin note, drawn from what your team sees in sales and rentals, with a simple signup underneath. The recognition is already there. This puts it to work.

THE SIMPLEST NEXT STEP

A short call, no pitch deck required, just to see if this is a fit. You can also see exactly how we work, and the real estate systems we have already built, at balaynibruno.co/real-estate-agent-marketing.html.
