

A note for Brooke Damron

Prepared for Brooke Damron, The Damron Group REALTORS, San Marcos · September 11, 2026

WHO WE ARE

We are a small operational support studio. Real estate is not new to us, we built the website, content, and AI systems behind Real Cavalry, a San Antonio brokerage, ran a two-year marketing partnership with a Texas real estate investment firm, and built the email and CRM systems behind a real estate closing company. That is the same work we would bring here: the content, the follow-up, and the systems that keep a pipeline warm between closings.

WHAT WE NOTICED ABOUT BROOKE DAMRON

You are already doing real things well:

- Real volume behind the name. 56 closed sales and about 35.9 million in total volume, from starter homes up to the two million end, so you are not a one-price-band agent.
- Second-generation REALTOR with roughly fifteen years in marketing and branding before real estate. That is an unusual combination and it shows in how the listings are presented.

Where we see the fastest room to grow:

- The Damron Group blog has not been touched since 28 July 2022. Four years of nothing on a site that is otherwise doing its job, and San Marcos market questions are exactly what people search for before they call anyone.
- There is no email capture anywhere on the site. Someone can browse listings, read about the team and leave, and there is no way to reach them again unless they pick up the phone first.

WHAT WE WOULD DO FIRST

Bring the market-update content back to life and put a simple capture behind it, so the people already visiting the site can be followed up rather than lost. Start with a monthly San Marcos market note that answers the questions buyers are already typing into Google, and let it build a list you own.

THE SIMPLEST NEXT STEP

A short call, no pitch deck required, just to see if this is a fit. You can also see exactly how we work, and the real estate systems we have already built, at balaynibruno.co/real-estate-agent-marketing.html.
