

A note for Texas Hills Realty

Prepared for Greg Oehler, Texas Hills Realty, Fredericksburg · September 16, 2026

WHO WE ARE

We are a small operational support studio. Real estate is not new to us, we built the website, content, and AI systems behind Real Cavalry, a San Antonio brokerage, ran a two-year marketing partnership with a Texas real estate investment firm, and built the email and CRM systems behind a real estate closing company. That is the same work we would bring here: the content, the follow-up, and the systems that keep a pipeline warm between closings.

WHAT WE NOTICED ABOUT TEXAS HILLS REALTY

You are already doing real things well:

- More than 30 years in Fredericksburg, Realtor of the Year 2016, a Realtors' Lifetime Achievement Award, and past president of the local board and past chair of the Fredericksburg Chamber of Commerce.
- A family story buyers remember: Leslie Oehler Kneese brings six generations of Fredericksburg roots to the team. We help natives sell and others become natives is a line most brokerages would envy.

Where we see the fastest room to grow:

- The About page promises current market information and some of the most in-depth, objective research available, but there is no blog or market report on the site where a buyer could read it.
- There is no email signup, so the out of town buyers who find you while planning a Hill Country move have no way to hear from you until they are ready to call.

WHAT WE WOULD DO FIRST

Put that promised research on the page: a short monthly Fredericksburg and Gillespie County market note, written from 30 years of local knowledge, with a simple signup underneath. The people becoming natives are the ones who read it.

THE SIMPLEST NEXT STEP

A short call, no pitch deck required, just to see if this is a fit. You can also see exactly how we work, and the real estate systems we have already built, at balaynibruno.co/real-estate-agent-marketing.html.
